

Elaine Gale

Elaine Gale is an associate professor and program leader for the deaf and hard of hearing teacher preparation programs at Hunter College in NYC. She is currently the chair of the Deaf Leadership International Alliance (DLIA) organization, which was established to advocate for deaf adults collaborating with professionals and connecting with young deaf children and their families. She is also the Lead Investigator for the Hunter College consortium on a research project titled Family ASL: Bimodal Bilingual Acquisition by Deaf Children of Hearing Parents supported by the National Institute on Deafness and other Communication Disorders (NIDCD) of the National Institutes of Health (NIH).