

Daiva Müllegger-Treciokaite

Daiva Müllegger-Treciokaite works as a parent-peer in the Family-Centered Intervention Program Linz (FLIP). She is mother of two daughters, the older of whom is deaf and wears cochlear implants. Her interests focus on the psycho-emotional wellbeing of families with children with hearing loss and psychosocial support for parents.

Daiva is also a research associate at the institute of developmental medicine.